

Former Toastmasters

and what they say about us:

Find the right words, and your audience will find you!

Peter Coors

CEO – Coors Brewing Company

“As my career grew with the company, I needed to develop my communication skills more and more... I’ve learned a great deal about speaking and listening and now realize the importance of the overall program. For me, it took getting into a formal organization – such as Toastmasters – to understand what total communication is all about.”

Debbi Fields Rose

Founder – Mrs. Fields Cookies

“I’d never thought of myself as a great communicator, and that’s one of the reasons I got involved [in Toastmasters]. The idea of getting in front of a group, not as Mrs. Fields but really as Debbi, made my knees shake, and I’d get all dry-mouthed. But the Toastmasters group understood. Here’s a place where you can learn, grow, develop – and where other people are doing and feeling the same thing.”

Tom Peters

Management expert and bestselling author

“Join Toastmasters. Oral communication skills count. Height and hair color may be in the genes, but public speaking isn’t. Toastmasters does a fabulous job of helping people shape up their communication skills. Toastmasters has played a tremendous role in building my self-confidence and communication skills.”

Linda Lingle

Governor of Hawaii

“Toastmasters is the best and least expensive personal improvement class you can go to. Anybody who begins and sticks with it for any length of time ends up a better speaker. As a result, they build confidence, and are able to do their jobs better.”

Best of all, you'll practice in a friendly, supportive environment with people who are there for the same reasons you are – to become better communicators and leaders.

Since 1924, Toastmasters International has helped millions of men and women become more confident in front of an audience. Our network of clubs and their learn-by-doing program are sure to help you become a better speaker and leader. Creating Leaders.

Good leaders are good communicators.

Leadership is the art of persuading others to do what you wish to be done. To do so, you need to communicate and you need to work as a team. In a Toastmasters club, you'll do both; and you'll find out how to vary your approach to suit the needs of different people, be they the audience for a speech or the committee for a fundraiser. Whatever goals you wish to achieve in life, they will be realized quicker and easier by improving your ability to lead.

What's in it for you?

Confident, charismatic leaders weren't born that way. In Toastmasters you'll gain the practice to become the leader and speaker you want to be. Become a better negotiator. Gain trust. Sharpen your management skills. Inspire your team. Be decisive!

“Your potential is limited only by how many excuses you have.”
